

Cottage Grove History Hunt

Cottage Grove Museum (Plaque in front of porch) - Corner of Birch and H Street

Who chose the octagonal shape when constructing the building? Father _____

Interesting fact found: _____

McFarland Cemetery Kiosk - Corner of Holly and Kalapuya

What was the trade language used by bands of Kalapuya and other native tribes? _____

Interesting fact found: _____

Chambers Bridge (Display on east side of bridge) - South River Road

Both mills located at this location burned, first Chambers in _____ then Lorane Valley Lumber in _____,

Interesting fact found: _____

Applegate Interpretive Center - Corner of River Road and Main Street

Who is Scotts Valley named after? (see the map panel) _____

Interesting fact found: _____

Bohemia Gold Mining Museum (plaque on front of building) - 10th and Jefferson

In what year did the heyday (most active period) of the Bohemia Mining District end? _____

Interesting fact found: _____

Contact Name: _____

#of participating family members: _____

Phone: _____

email: _____

Cottage Grove History Hunt

Trailhead Park Display - Main and 10th

The wigwam burner in the park was build in _____ and was used to burn _____.

Interesting fact found: _____

All America Park, Opal Kiosk - Main and 7th

What nickname did the editor of the 1916 local newspaper give Opal? _____

Interesting fact found: _____

The Bank Building - Corner of 6th and Main (poster will be displayed in the window)

What model of vehicle did Herbert Eakin register in 1915?

Interesting fact found: _____

Cottage Grove History Hunt

What was your families favorite historical site to visit in Cottage Grove? _____

What did you enjoy about this activity? _____

Instructions

Organized and supported by Cottage Grove area Partners in History.

Working as a family, visit the locations, explore the display and fill out the associated section of the scavenger hunt. We also encourage you to take selfies and share on social media using the #CGHistoryHunt.

When you have completed the scavenger hunt, fill in the contact information on the form and mail to CGHS PO Box 142, Cottage Grove, OR 97424. You can also submit images of the completed form, both sides, to cghistoricalsoc@gmail.com (snap a pic and send). All forms turned in by July 31st will be entered into the drawing for a family dinner ($150 gift certificate) at a local restaurant. Each tagged social media post will add an entry in the drawing and increase your families chance at winning so don't forget to post!

Have fun and enjoy this activity with your kids!